

2013 NZPSA Conference, 2-3 Dec

8.30-9:00	Registration, Foyer, C Lecture Theatre
9:00-9:30	Welcome/Whakatau, Foyer, C Lecture Theatre
Session 1: Monday, 2 December, 9:30-10:45	Opening Plenary, Room C1 The Politics of Renewal: New Thinking from Post-Disaster Christchurch Chair: Joanna Norris (Editor, The Press) Raf Manji (Christchurch City Councillor), Mary Richardson (CEO, Christchurch Methodist Mission), Danielle O'Halloran (PACIFICA Canterbury President), Sacha McMeeking (Principal, Catalytic Consulting)
10:45-11:15	Morning Tea
Session 2: Monday, 2 December, 11:15-12:30	Room: A6 Panel: Democracy and Women's Equality at the Grassroots Chair: Kate McMillan Indi Akurugoda University of Waikato Promoting Decentralisation and Grassroots Development in Sri Lanka: Non-state Actors and Local Government Shajeta Aktar, Elizabeth Morrell and Janet McIntyre Flinders University Direct Election in Reserved Seats: Agency, Capability and Empowerment of Women in Local Government Institutions in Bangladesh Rejaul Karim Bakshi Deakin University Social Capital and Women Empowerment in Rural Bangladesh Nyamaamaa Avirmed University of Waikato Pension System Reform in Post-Socialist Mongolia and its Impact on Gender Equality	Room: A5 Panel: Policy Processes Chair: Amy Fletcher Jacob Ricks Singapore Management University Changing the Odds: Politicians, Bureaucrats, and the Politics of Policy Reform Muhammad Imran, Lee Matthews and Jane Pearce, Massey University Political Path Dependence in Public Transport in Auckland Karl Löfgren Victoria University of Wellington Electronic Government as a Policy Domain	Room: C3 Panel: EU and International Politics Chair: Milenko Petrovic Natalia Chaban University of Canterbury EU Perceived Importance in Times of Sovereign Euro Debt Crisis: Perspectives from Asia-Pacific Andrew Collins University of Canterbury The European Union as a Peacebuilding Actor: An Aspirational Identity? Milos Blucher University of Canterbury A Needs-based Distribution of European Development Aid? John Leslie and Matthew Castle, Victoria University of Wellington/Australian National University 'Deep' Integration and Economic Complementarity: Comparing 'Supply' and 'Demand' for Integration in European and Trans-Tasman Single Markets	Room: C1 Panel: Disaster Politics Chair: Suzanne Vallance Sally Carlton and Suzanne Vallance Lincoln University Non-Governmental and Civil Society Organisations in the Christchurch Recovery Akiko Nanami Hiroshima Shudo University Organisation and Development of Student Volunteers after Disaster Patrick Barrett University of Waikato The Politics of Depoliticisation in a Post-Disaster Context Robert Kipp, University of Canterbury Disasters as Focusing Events: Policy Changes and Disaster Governance in New Zealand	Room: C2 Panel: Republicanism, Humility, Apology Chair: Mark Francis Stephen Winter University of Auckland Theorizing the Political Apology: An Argumentative Survey Vicki Spencer University of Otago Humility as a Civic Virtue Geoff Kemp University of Auckland Milton, Republican Liberty and the Fourth Estate Takashi Shogimen University of Otago What to Do with Patriotism? Debating Republicanism in Japan Today

12:30-1:15	Lunch. Women's Caucus (Room C2)
Session 3: Monday, 2 December, 1:15-2:30	Room: A5 Panel: Peacebuilding and Renewal Chair: Jeremy Moses Shaun Goldfinch and Karl DeRouen University of Nottingham/ University of Alabama In it for the Long Haul? Lessons from Post-Conflict Statebuilding, Peacebuilding and Good Governance in Timor-Leste Amalia Sustikarini University of Canterbury Political Participation in Aceh, Indonesia: Panacea or Poison in Post-Conflict Peacebuilding? Aimee Adams University of Canterbury The Standard of Civilisation: A Case Study of Timor-Leste Patrick K. Mbugua University of Otago International Peace Interventions and Conflict Transformation in Collapsed States: Lessons from Somalia	Room: A6 Panel: Policy and Emerging Technologies Chair: Amy Fletcher Priya Kurian and Debashish Munshi, University of Waikato Expanding Public Deliberations on New and Emerging Technologies: An Analysis of Maori and Youth Citizen Panels on Nanotechnology Daniel Robertson University of Canterbury Is New Zealand Nano-Ready? Sean Welsh University of Canterbury Should Killer Robots be Banned? Blaž Lenarčič University of Primorska The Influence of ICTs on Privacy in Contemporary Society	Room: C3 Panel: EU Foreign Policy: Global Ambitions with Limited Outcomes? Chair: John Leslie Milenko Petrovic University of Canterbury EU Enlargement into the Western Balkans beyond 2013: Wishful Thinking? Nicholas Smith University of Auckland The EU as a Realist Actor? The Virtues of a Neoclassical Realist Approach for the Analysis of EU Foreign Policy Outcomes Serena Kelly, Natalia Chaban and Jess Bain University of Canterbury Does More Coherence Mean More Effectiveness? The EEAS and the European Union Delegations Mark Furness German Development Institute Let's Get Comprehensive: European Union Engagement in Fragile and Conflict-Affected Countries	Room: C1 Panel: Citizenship, Youth and Political Agency Chair: Carol Mutch Sylvia Nissen University of Canterbury Understanding Student Political Action and Imagination in Turbulent Times Elizabeth Plew University of Canterbury Youth Citizenship Education in Norway: A Case study Bronwyn Hayward and Elin Selboe, University of Canterbury Canterbury/University of Oslo Supporting Resilient Global Citizenship in a Changing Climate: Lessons from Norway, Samoa and New Zealand Bronwyn Wood and Christina Ergler Victoria University of Wellington/ University of Otago Re-Imagining Youth Participation in the 21st Century: Young People in Aotearoa New Zealand Speak Out Carol Mutch University of Auckland Participatory Research with Children: Christchurch Students Tell their Earthquake Stories	Room: C2 Roundtable: Why does Culture Matter? Chair: Mark Francis Vicky Spencer University of Otago Katherine Smits University of Auckland Stephen Winter University of Auckland Lindsey MacDonald University of Canterbury
2:30-2:50	Afternoon Tea

Session 4: Monday, 2 December, 2:50-4:05	Room: A5 Panel: Understanding Revolutionary Change Chair: Richard Jackson Damien Rogers Massey University Politico-Cultural Civil War: An Emerging Politicology of Armed Conflict in Contemporary World Affairs? Joe Llewellyn University of Otago Regime Transitions and Nonviolent Revolutionary Movements: Current Research, Research Gaps and the Question of the State Charles Butcher, Elvira Bobekova, John Gray and Liesel Mitchell University of Otago Mobilization for Violence and Nonviolence: Network Structure and Participation in Insurgency, 1989-2006 Mamadou Diouma Bah University of Waikato Back from the Brink: State Resilience to Armed Conflicts in Guinea	Room: A6 Panel: Changing Coalitions and Regimes Chair: Akiko Nanami Maria Tanyag University of Auckland Beyond Pinays and Pills: Intersectionality, Coalitions, and Policy Change Tian He University of Canterbury The Rise and Evolution of the Developmental State in East Asia Atsushi Osaki, Waseda University Who Survives and Who Quits? Ministerial Turnover in Advanced Parliamentary Democracies Edward Elder University of Auckland A New Model of Communication for Market-Oriented Leaders: Maintain Public Support in Power	Room: C3 Panel: New Zealand Politics of Finance Chair: Shaun Goldfinch Chris Eichbaum Victoria University of Wellington The Politics of Central Bank Independence (and Governance): The Evolving New Zealand Story Frank Scrimgeour and Daniel Zirker University of Waikato Corruption in Australia and New Zealand: Is Australia on a Separate Path? Jo Barnes and Daniel Zirker University of Waikato Reporting Corruption as Social Deviance in New Zealand: Protecting the Political Record? Alex Thomas Victoria University of Wellington Balancing the Books: The New Zealand Parliament and the Control and Scrutiny of Government Expenditure	Room: A4 Panel: Education and Political Conflict Chair: Serena Kelly Zorana Medarić and Maja Zadel University of Primorska Intercultural Co-Existence: The Case Study of Interethnic Violence in Schools in Five European Countries Rachel Rafferty University of Otago Peace-ing Together the Puzzle of the Past: The Politics of History Education in Post-Conflict Northern Ireland and the Balkans Marie Nissanka University of Otago The Challenges of Implementing Multicultural, Integrated Education in Sri Lanka Pradit Chinudomsab University of Canterbury The Influence of University Lecturers towards Students' Class Perceptions	Room: C2 Panel: Discourses and Governmentalities Chair: Lindsey MacDonald Xavier Marquez Victoria University of Wellington Ritual and Political Theory Paul Kramer University of Auckland Queer Governmentalities Carla Lam University of Otago Political Theory as (Invested) Story-Telling: Lessons from Western Feminism
---	--	---	--	--	---

Session 5: Monday, 2 December, 4:15-5:30	Room: A5 Panel: Managing Southeast Asian Insurgencies Chair: Jacob Ricks Naimah Talib University of Canterbury Pursuing a Durable Peace in the Southern Philippines: The 2012 Framework Agreement between the Philippines Government and the Moro Islamic Liberation Front Ajirapa Pienkhuntod University of Otago Contributions of Religious Leaders to Peacebuilding: Investigating the Importance of Social Bonding and Bridging in the Deep South of Thailand Thanikun Chantra University of Canterbury Political Participation and Conflict in Southern Thailand Kayanee Chor Boonpunth, University of Waikato The Role of Civil Society in Resolving Insurgency in Southern Thailand	Room: A6 Panel: International Trade Chair: Natalia Chaban John Leslie and Annemarie Elijah Victoria University of Wellington/McGill University From One Single Market to Another? Ideas, Europe and Construction of the Trans-Tasman Single Economic Market (TTSEM) Philip Nel University of Otago The Rise and Fall of BITs	Room: C3 Panel: US Foreign Policy Chair: Michael Harland Robert G. Patman University of Otago Rethinking the Origins of 9/11 Chin-Kuei Tsui University of Otago Rethinking the Discursive Construction of Terrorism and Counterterrorism: What Discourse Showed, Explained, and Hid Eliot Lynch University of Otago The United States, the Persian Gulf Region, and a Deepening 'Crisis of Wilsonianism': The Impact of the 1979 Iranian Revolution and the 2003 Iraq War on American Foreign Policy Nicholas Khoo University of Otago Hard-Balancing the Hegemon: China's Response to U.S. Ballistic Missile Defence	Room: A4 Panel: New Zealand Politics of Reform Chair: Therese Arseneau Fiona Barker and Kate McMillan Victoria University of Wellington Constituting Political Community: New Zealand's Extension of National Voting Rights to Non-Citizens Joy Twemlow University of Canterbury Time for a Written Constitution? Assessing the Desirability in Light of New Zealand Constitutional Culture Janine Hayward University of Otago The Politics of Electoral Reform in New Zealand David MacDonald University of Guelph Models of Diversity: Reforming Canadian Multiculturalism in an Era of Aboriginal Settler Reconciliation	Room: C2 Roundtable: Quantitative Methods Chair: Elvira Bobekova Jack Vowles Victoria University of Wellington Hilde Coffe Victoria University of Wellington Charles Butcher University of Otago
5:30-6:45	NZPSA AGM (Room C2)
7:00	Conference Dinner (The Shilling Club, Level 1, James Hight building) Address by Lianne Dalziel, Mayor of Christchurch

Session 1: Tuesday, 3 December, 9:00-10:00	Keynote Address, Room C1 Hugh White (Australian National University) - The Big Shift: Wealth, Power and Politics in the Asian Century
10:00-10.30	Morning Tea
Session 2: Tuesday, 3 December, 10:30-11:45	Room: C2 Roundtable: Change and Renewal in Fiji - The New Constitution and the Future of Democracy Chair: Jim Ockey Ian Campbell University of Canterbury Graham Hassall Victoria University of Wellington Steven Ratuva University of Auckland Ben Reilly Murdoch University	Room: A5 Panel: China and East Asia Chair: Nicholas Khoo John Bailey University of Otago Balance of Vulnerability and the Distribution of Fear in East Asia Ashok Sharma University of Auckland India-China Relations in the Context of US-India Strategic Partnership: Will it be Stormy or Peaceful? Richard Hudson University of Auckland The China Model and the Evolution of the Chinese Economy: The Case of Sino-Angolan relations David Belgrave Victoria University of Wellington Mao's Feather Cloak: New Zealand's Cold War Strategic Assessments of Communist China 1949-1976	Room: C3 Roundtable: Local Government and Low Voter Turnout - What are the Issues? Chair: Therese Arseneau Jean Drage Christine Cheyne Massey University Andy Asquith Massey University Mike Reid Local Government New Zealand Janine Hayward University of Otago Ali Memon Lincoln University Bronwyn Hayward University of Canterbury	Room: A6 Panel: Media, Framing and Politics Chair: Zita Joyce Ghislaine Lewis University of Canterbury Evolving Newspapers and Courting Conflict: Jamaica on the Cusp of Change Khin Wee Chen University of Canterbury Political Humour as Part of Transmedia Mobilization in Singaporean Social Movements Gabriel Weibl, Steve Howard and Berry Greenland University of Canterbury The EU in New Zealand High Schools: An Investigation in the Framing of the EU in New Zealand Social Studies Textbooks Suthida Pattanasrivichian University of Canterbury From Journalism to Political Protest: The Yellow Shirts' Pathway to the Emergence of Collective Action Frames

11:45-12:45	Lunch, HODs Meeting
Session 3: Tuesday, 3 December, 12.45-2:00	Room: C2 Jacob Bercovitch Memorial Panel: Conflict, Mediation and Peace Chair: Liora Bercovitch and Jim Ockey Richard Jackson University of Otago Peace Studies: A Field in Need of CPR? Karl DeRouen University of Alabama The Impact of Mediation on Civil War Ben Reilly Murdoch University Powersharing in the Asia-Pacific Carmela Lutmar University of Haifa Leadership Change and Mediation in Civil Wars	Room: C3 Ali Memon Sustainability Panel Chair: Hamish Rennie Rasmus Karlsson Hankuk University of Foreign Studies Scalability: Why Every Step Does Not Take Us Closer to Sustainability Julie MacArthur University of Auckland Scalar Politics and Sustainability: Assessing the Promises and Pitfalls of Ecolocalism Chandra Lal Pandey University of Waikato Managing Climate Change: Shifting Roles for NGOs Bronwyn Hayward and Nick Kirk University of Canterbury/Lincoln University Rethinking the Politics of Resilience Respondents: Ali Memon and Richard Morgan

Session 4: Tuesday, 3 December, 2:10-3:25	Room: C2 Panel: Peacebuilding in the Pacific Chair: Steven Ratuva Celeste Donovan University of Otago Security for Whom? A Gender Perspective on the 'Merging' of Security and Development through a Case Study of the New Zealand Community Policing Programme in West Papua, Indonesia Mele Tabukovu University of Canterbury Fiji-China Relations Post-2006 Coup and the Impact on Fiji's Domestic Politics Hannah Gordon University of Otago Tailor Made? New Zealand Aid and the Tonga Police Development Programme Andrew Ydgren University of Canterbury Post-Conflict Policing: The Experience of RAMSI's Participating Police Force	Room: A5 Panel: Authoritarian Pathways Chair: Ben Reilly Daniel Zirker and Ibikunle Adeakin University of Waikato "Quasi-Ethnicity" in an African Army: Nigerian Authoritarianism in Political Perspective Dawn Miller-McTaggart University of Canterbury Colonial Legacy and Polity Imposition: The Effect of Polity Imposition on the Survival of Former Colonies Carlos Waisman University of California, San Diego Institutional Transfer and Political Regimes: The Case of South America in Comparative Perspective Seung Kim University of Canterbury The Formation and Solidification of South Korea's Modern National Identity: North Korea-Exclusive National Identity	Room: A4 Panel: Sovereignty, Power and the State Chair: James Headley Laura Southgate University of Otago The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and the Concept of Sovereignty Jeremy Moses University of Canterbury Sovereignty, Intervention and Contemporary International Law Lucas Knotter University of Canterbury Geopolitical Anomalies: Places that do not Exist? Osman Antwi-Boateng UAE University The Rise of Qatar as a Soft Power and the Challenges	Room: A8 Panel: Resources and the Environment Chair: Suzanne Vallance Jonathan Symons Macquarie University After Environmentalism: The Politics of a Transformative Energy Research Agenda Elizabeth Soal Waitaki Irrigators Collective Freshwater in New Zealand: Is Sustainable Common Pool Management Possible? Lauren Gent University of Auckland Governance of the Renewable Energy Technologies Sector in New Zealand	Room: A6 Panel: New Zealand Parliament and Cabinet Chair: Janine Hayward Hilde Coffe Victoria University of Wellington Life as it is for Members of Parliament: Time Use among New Zealand Members of Parliament Geoff Ford, Kevin Watson and Bronwyn Hayward University of Canterbury The New Zealand Political Language Corpus and Citizen Taxpayer: Introducing a New Corpus and a Case Study Exploring Representations of the Taxpayer Jonathan Rowe University of Otago Two Decisions are Better than One: How New Zealand's Parliamentary System would be Enhanced by the Re-Establishment of an Upper Chamber Grant Duncan Massey University The New Zealand Cabinet Manual: What Does It Do?
3:25-3:45	Afternoon Tea

Session 5: Tuesday, 3 December, 3:45-5:00	Room: A4 Panel: Human Rights, Aid, and Security Chair: Robert Patman Dawn Miller-McTaggart and Scott Walker University of Canterbury Rights Provision Episodes: Measuring Human Rights Provision Persistence Ipek Demirsu Sabanci University The Trade-off between Human Rights and National Security: A Comparative Analysis of the UK and Turkey John Gray University of Otago Help or Hindrance? Analyzing the Impact of Post-Conflict Security Sector Reform on Political Stability	Room: A5 Panel: Identity, Peace and Conflict Chair: Ashok Sharma Ria Shibata University of Otago Memory, Identity and Competing Victimhood in Sino-Japanese Relations Tadashi Iwami University of Otago Japanese Peacebuilding and its Collective Identity as a Responsible Member of International Society Troy Gillan University of Canterbury Retribution or Reconciliation? The People as Victims and Post-Dictatorship National Reconstruction in Allied Occupied Japan and Germany	Room: A8 Panel: International Environmental Regimes and Politics Chair: Karl Löfgren Stephen Noakes University of Auckland The Greening of a Civil Society? Transnational Environmental Activism and China's Climate Change Politics Xiang Gao University of Auckland "Common but Differentiated Responsibilities": China's State Socialisation and the International Environmental Regime Yadira Martinez Pantoja University of Auckland The Influence of Biotechnology Corporations and Environmental Groups on Mexico's GM Food Policy Change	Room: A6 Panel: Media, Public Communication and Politics in New Zealand Chair: Donald Matheson Margie Comrie Massey University Political Journalists and their Twitter Feeds during Labour's Leadership Contest Juana Diesing University of Otago Social Media: A Solution to Declining Youth engagement in Politics? Sarah Baker Auckland University of Technology Politics and the Changing Face of New Zealand Current Affairs Television Matthew Gibbons University of Waikato Government Expenditure in New Zealand since 1935: A Re-assessment
--	--	---	---	--	--

Session 6: Tuesday, 3 December, 5:00-6:15	Room: A4 Panel: Building Peace and Security Chair: Karl DeRouen Daniel Ohs University of Otago Can Contemporary Ex-Combatant Management Create Sustainable Peace? A Social Psychological Perspective Luca J. Uberti, Maj Grasten University of Otago/Copenhagen Business School The Politics of Law in a Post-Conflict International Protectorate: Privatization and Property Rights in Kosovo (1999-2008) Michael Magcamit University of Canterbury The Escape from ‘Trade in Illusions’: A Comparative Analysis of Cohabitative Security – Trade Governance Nexus in the Asia-Pacific	Room: A8 Panel: Democratisation Chair: Naimah Talib Peter Nwokeke University of Canterbury A Comparative Study of the Ruling Elites in Nigeria and Ghana: Electoral Processes and Democratic Consolidation Aaron Kunaraja Victoria University of Wellington Semi-Democracy in Transition? GE 13 and the Resilience of Competitive Authoritarianism in Malaysia Nilay Baycar University of Otago The Contribution of the Justice and Development Party (JDP) to Democratisation in Turkey: Success or Failure?	Room: A5 Panel: Intervention and the Responsibility to Protect Chair: Jeremy Moses Aidan Gnoth Victoria University of Wellington Lost in Translation: A Comparative Analysis of R2P's Diffusion within South East Asia and Africa Stan Jagger University of Waikato Embedded Humanitarian Action by, and Humanitarian Engagement with, Non-State Armed Groups (NSAGs): The Case of NSAGs in the Borderlands of Burma/Myanmar Dennis Mardle University of Canterbury Broadening the Traditional Concept of the International Responsibility to Protect: Kaitiakitanga James Headley University of Otago Russian Policy on the War in Syria	Room: A6 Panel: Voting Behaviour Chair: Bronwyn Hayward Jack Vowles Victoria University of Wellington Turnout, Competitiveness, Age, and Generations in British Elections, 1964-2010 Guillermo Merelo University of Auckland Neither Here Nor There, I Don't Vote and I Don't Care: The Role of Political Culture in Electoral Non-Participation through External Voting in Mexico Lara Greaves, Danny Osborne and Chris Sibley University of Auckland Finding the Fence Sitters: A Latent Class Model of Political Support in New Zealand and the Prediction of Voter Turnout Danny Osborne and Chris Sibley. University of Auckland Intergroup Emotions have Opposing Effects on Māori Voters' Support for Conservatism
---	--	--	---	---	--